Courses available for exchange students	https://www.ic.keio.ac.jp/en/study/exchange/courses/courses_available_for_exchange_students.html
Courses conducted in English open to exchange students	1. International Center Courses The curriculum of the International Center Courses focuses on Japan and East/ Southeast Asia as a central theme. There are about 70 courses in various fields such as language and literature, arts, culture and cross-cultural understanding, science, religion and thought, history, media and communications, social issues, politics, diplomacy and international exchange, business and economy, and law. For the list of courses, please visit the following website. https://www.ic.keio.ac.jp/en/aboutic/aboutcourse/list_international_center_courses.html 2. Courses offered by Faculty / Graduate Schools Courses are mostly taught in Japanese, but some English-taught courses are also available. Please note that the limited number of courses are available for exchange students, and priority is given to regular students. For the list of courses which are open to exchange students, please visit the following website. https://www.ic.keio.ac.jp/en/study/exchange/courses/courses_by_faculty.html
Courses conducted in Japanese (Undergraduate Faculty Courses)	Students who have Japanese language proficiency equivalent to JLPT level N2 or above may take courses in Japanese offered by undergraduate faculties. *Some registration restrictions and/or course prerequisites may apply.
Japanese Language Courses	for Keio International Program (KIP) and Research Program: "Keio Japanese Courses" (Japanese language courses for KIP and Research students) are offered by the Center for Japanese Studies. These courses include subjects in 7 study levels from elementary to

	advanced, in which students can effectively learn the Japanese language in a short period of time and balance their studies in Japanese language with other courses. for Japanese Language Program (JLP): JLP subjects are offered by the Center for Japanese Studies for students who would like to focus on Japanese language learning. Main Course, which is the core of the Japanese Language Program, is characterized by having a broad range of subject options.
Restricted Courses	Physical education courses, foreign language courses, and courses in the School of Medicine are not open to exchange students. Due to different semester/ term systems, Keio Business School (KBS) Courses are not open to exchange students except for faculty-level exchange students from Copenhagen Business School (CBS).

HOUSING INFORMATION

Availability of university dormitories	We have some off-campus housing that is subsidized by Keio. Exchange students have priority access to a room (but not guaranteed) in these housing arrangements if they complete housing application on time. https://www.ic.keio.ac.jp/en/study/exchange/housing.html
Keio Housing Rent (subject to change)	The rent charged to students varies from JPY 55,000 to JPY 78,400. Students will also be charged a one-time, additional maintenance fee of JPY 20,000 for their first month's rent. Deposits and key money are not required.
Application procedures for housing	We will send housing information including the application procedures to students.
Additional important information	No airport pick-up services are provided for students. Detailed directions will be given by e-mail after the student's dormitory is confirmed.

LIVING EXPENSES

Monthly living costs	Taking utilities, food, clothes, transportation, books and miscellaneous expenses into consideration, monthly living costs should come to about JPY 130,000 - JPY 170,000.
Example	Keio Housing*: JPY 55,000 - JPY 78,400 Food: JPY 30,000 - JPY 60,000 Clothes: JPY 10,000 - JPY 20,000 Books: JPY 7,000 Transportation: JPY 8,000+ Medical Insurance: JPY 1,500 Mobile Phone: JPY 5,000+ Miscellaneous: JPY 15,000
Important Notes:	It is important that students have enough funding to cover the expected costs of their stay at Keio, which should be at least JPY 130,000 (or equivalent in their country's currency) per month for the expected period of stay. There are no scholarships eligible for exchange students to apply after coming to Japan. Please make sure to arrange in their home country. It is also difficult for exchange students to get a part-time job during their exchange period.
