

Ross

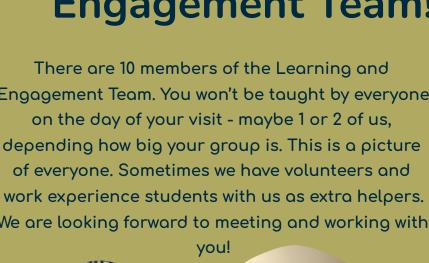

Jo

Michael

Meet the Learning and

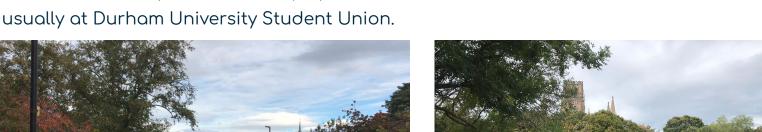

Durham University

Charlotte

Library and Collections

way to Palace Green, so you will have a short walk from where your coach drops you off,

Your coach is not able to bring you all the

You will have to walk over Kingsgate Bridge. Can you spot the cathedral?

At the end of the bridge are steps that lead up to Bow Lane.

...Dun Cow Lane. This leads up to Palace Green

where you will see the cathedral and castle.

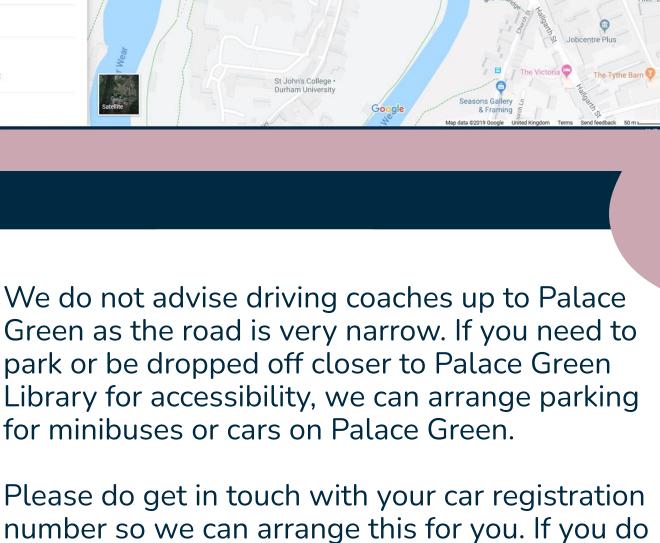

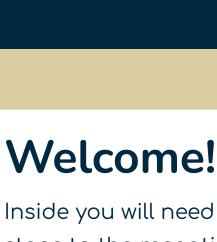

† Walk west on Kingsgate Bridge towards Bow Ln

A Toll road

Turn right onto N Bailey A Toll road

Kingsgate Bridge turns slightly left and becomes

Inside you will need to walk up a few steps to the reception desk. There is a lift here if you need it. It is not always possible to take photographs of the exhibits so it is always best to check with us first and not get in touch with us beforehand, you will be charged a congestion fee by Durham County

be able to leave your vehicle parked there.

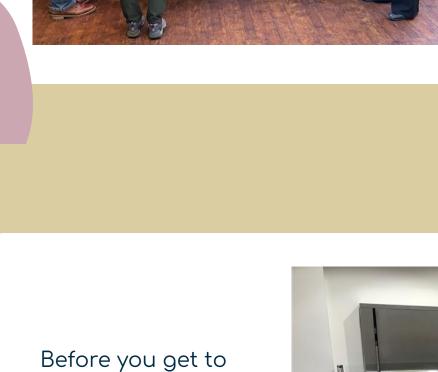

Council for driving on to Palace Green and not we can guide you. If you do take photographs, please do not use a flash. You can draw or sketch as well.

our classroom you

another small set of

There is also a lift

here if you need it.

will come to

steps.

...Inside you will see a blue trolley for you to put your bag on and hang up your coat.

There is a male and a female toilet in the

The lights in the toilets are bright. The

There are stairs at various points in the building, and always a lift to use if you need it. The lifts can be a bit noisy to use.

lights don't come on until you go into the toilet cubicle, so don't worry if that takes

Learning Centre.

a moment to happen.

IIIIIIII WXXXV X////

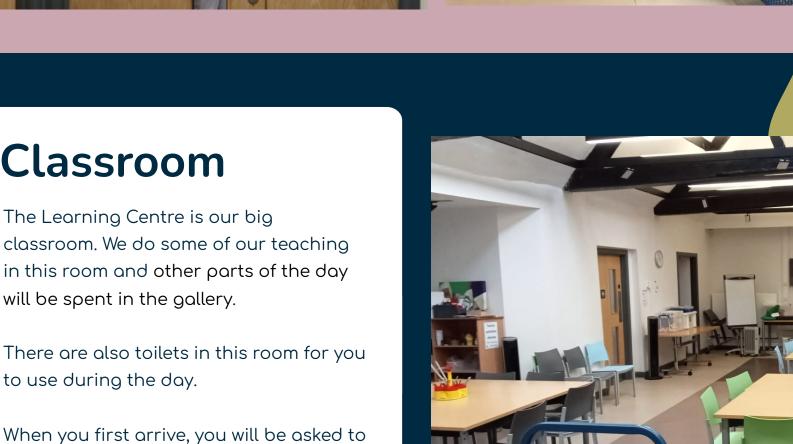

When you arrive, we will take you to the Learning Centre door to line up...

sit down so that we can say a proper hello to you and tell you about the day.

Accessibility

Where to put your things?

•

There is an accessible toilet near the reception desk which we can guide you to if you need it.

Entering Durham Castle...

As you walk around you may see some of the university students who live there during term time.

As we explore the castle, we will stop and talk with you about the different parts and its history.

We will take you back out of the library doors. We enter the castle down a walkway, called the Barbican, which takes us through the Gatehouse and into the courtyard (or Bailey).

The Barbican is cobbled, so be careful as you walk so you don't trip.

can be a bit

noisy.

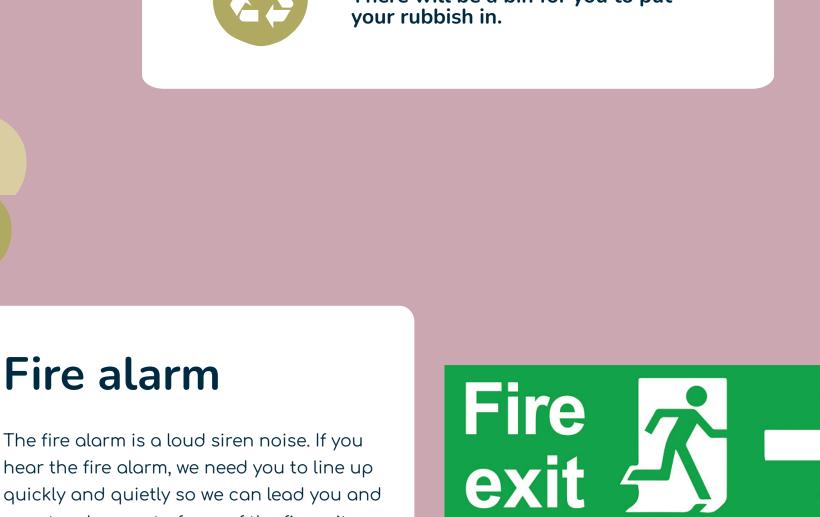

The steps up to inside the castle from the Bailey do not have a handrail, so take your time and don't rush anyone in front of you.

picnic.

Fire alarm

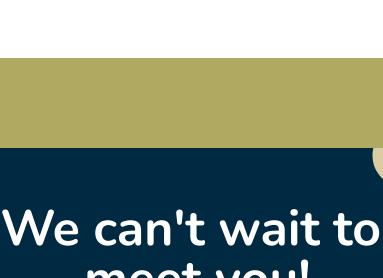

beginning of your day.

Enjoy your

visit!

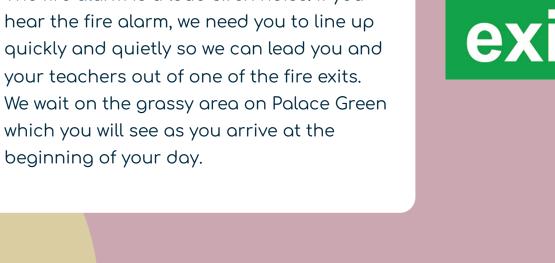

meet you!

If you or your teachers have any questions or concerns, do please get in touch with us and we will be very happy to answer them

The black staircase is very wonky! We need to be has low level lighting

to protect it. It can take your eyes a few moments to adjust.

Lunchtime! After washing your hands, you will have your lunch in the Learning Centre. If it is a sunny day and your teacher and class would like to, you can sit on the grass on Palace Green and have a There will be a bin for you to put

> 4schools@durham.ac.uk (0191) 334 2993/ 5695 dur.ac.uk/4schools dur.ac.uk/palace.green

careful to use

the handrail

and go slowly.